

Avis Ogburn, Palliative Medicine Coordinator

Specialty: Palliative Medicine and Hospice

Education: Health Care Administration Program (1998-1999)-Graduated with a certificate
Fleet Business School, Annapolis, MD
Certified Medicine Aide (1994)-Graduated with a certificate
Essex Community College, Essex, MD
Nursing Assistant Course (1992)-Graduated with a certificate
Automation Academy, Baltimore, MD

Worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant in 1992-1996 later went to work as a Certified Medicine Aide. In 2008 became Supervisor of the Access Services Department at Hospice of the Chesapeake.
TWIN 2003 Honoree

What is your approach to patient care?

I am committed to meeting the needs of patients and families. I always striving for a positive outcome.

What types of patients do you see?

Chronically ill patients or patients with life limiting illness or conditions.

How is your practice different from others?

Focus on quality of life, pain and symptom management, and end of life care with a comprehensive team approach.

Are you from this area?

Yes, born in Baltimore, MD at Johns Hopkins Hospital and raised in Anne Arundel County.

What do you enjoy most about being a coordinator?

Meeting the needs of patients/families and working with all levels of professions doctors, hospital, nurse, nurse practitioners, and the community. Eliminating any barriers