

Heather Travis, MS, OCN, CRNP

Specialty: Oncology, Palliative care

Education: University of Delaware and University of Maryland (Masters)

What is your approach to patient care? I have active listening approach, which helps me identify the patients need and goals to help them achieve the best quality of life,

What types of patients do you see? Adults with chronic illnesses or conditions.

How is your practice different from others? Our practice works so well as a team, we can provide excellent continuity among providers

Are you from this area? I was born and raised in north Wilmington, Delaware and moved to Maryland in 1996 when I met my husband.

What do you enjoy most about being a nurse practitioner? The immense satisfaction in helping others.